

Clinical Material in the Hospital – Biochemistry Department

At present, the Biochemistry section of the central laboratory is at the nascent stage of development and currently testing around 1000 blood samples per month. Plans are on foot to develop a state-of-the-art Biochemistry clinical laboratory with automated chemistry analyser, semi-autoanalyser, electrolyte analyser and ABG analyser. Hormonal assays (ELISA) are going to be started soon.